

CRS

CRS{flv}clip_08{/flv}Press Play

Collection Resource System (CRS) is PMAB's primary collection tool. CRS is an UNIX-based collection system that runs on a dedicated LINUX server. We have the ability to accept accounts on every conceivable media available and convert it into our system. We have many conversion programs written that will take your raw data and convert it into a readable format for our collection system. CRS provides the technological support needed to ensure faultless data conversion, manipulation and entry.